

GREAT CONCERT PIANIST AT CENTRAL BAPTIST

Helen Eugenia Hagan, Assisted
By T. C. Choral Club, To Appear
Tuesday, April 6th.

Helen Eugenia Hagan, the great concert pianist, will delight St. Louis, Tuesday, April 6, 1915, at Central Baptist Church, corner Ewing and Washington streets, assisted by the Central Baptist T. C. Choral Club, Troy Gorum, Director. This promises to be one of the most interesting St. Louis has ever witnessed. Her many and varied accomplishments, as a pianist, singer, and child, shall bear Miss Hagan the title of young, graceful, cultured, winning, fresh from European study.

Coming from America's most cultured center, a product of Yale, a winner of the Simons Sanford Fellowship, and a student in Paris at the Ecole Cantorum, at which she distinguished herself, music lovers in America looked for great things from Miss Hagan. True to herself and to the friends who stood sponsor for her career, she has not failed to make good. The discriminating taste of a Birmingham music loving audience was eminently satisfied. She played with an ease and an artistic touch that at once proclaimed her the finished artist, and that would stand her in good stead in the presence of a much more critical audience.

According to the announcement made in her advertising circular, Miss Hagan is said to be traveling for one definite purpose—that is to gather material for the Folk Songs of the American Negro. Her rendition of the few transcriptions of such melodies that appeared on her program went directly home to her Southern audience Monday night in a manner that presages a certain triumph in her aim, if she stick steadfastly to it.

Friends are urged to come early so as to be seated before the concert begins. Everybody welcome. All music and study clubs are invited to attend in large numbers.

Mrs. Victoria Clay Haley, Manager, Mrs. E. J. Smith, Chairman Entertainment Committee.

Mrs. Troy Gorum, Choral Director. General admission, 25 cents.
Reserved seats, 35 cents.
Concert at 8.

CHARITY BALL

The Chicago ball which is to be given by the St. Louis Colored Orphan Home Board, April 8th, at Pythian Hall, 3137 Pine is to be the grandest affair of the season. The most perfect forms of government the world has ever seen are those built upon the love of God. The common laws of England and the constitution of the United States are modeled in their great principles upon it. Today we are living in what may be called the electrical age. Everything is moving at a rapid rate. Men and women are mounting the chariot of progress believing in their destiny to success.

A GREAT RACE

Where does the Negro minister stand on the question of segregation? If they have taken any concerted action against it, they have failed to let it be known.

Race discrimination tends to produce discord, jealousy and bitterness. This country is preserved through righteousness. "Righteousness" exalts a nation, but sin is a reproach to any people. (Prov. 14:34). The most perfect forms of government the world has ever seen are those built upon the love of God. The common laws of England and the constitution of the United States are modeled in their great principles upon it. Today we are living in what may be called the electrical age. Everything is moving at a rapid rate. Men and women are mounting the chariot of progress believing in their destiny to success.

Hours for civilizing, educating, Christianizing, and moralizing the world for Christ.

"HAIR CULTURE AND THE EFFECT ON NEGRO CHARACTER."

By Madame Lydia Slaughter Wilson

Since the scientific cultivation of the hair is no longer a theory but a practical and demonstrated fact, the embarrassment that generally follows the young woman because of curly or kinky hair has been permanently removed and the realization of the fact that the "Glorious of the woman is her hair," is easily within the reach of every woman in the land, especially those who accept the treatment of acknowledged authorities in scalp treatment.

The marvelous effect upon the general disposition of the young woman who has received this relief as a consequence of this treatment can be appreciated best by her immediate relatives and friends who are in a position to witness the change. There is no longer an embarrassment, no longer a hesitating disposition toward mingling with social friends and in some rare instances, which have come to my personal observation, a luxuriant growth of the hair has actually improved the health of the customer because of the relief given to the mind. Therefore I earnestly recommend to every woman who has stubborn hair to begin at once this improvement.

Madame Wilson courteously asks the Argus' representative that he state through the columns of his paper that she has given several years of the study to scalp diseases and will guarantee the growth of the hair to any one who uses her preparations according to directions. Her "Lydia's Hair Beautifier" is at once, and without dispute the acknowledged leader when it comes to the cure of a diseased scalp, impoverished hair and an unusual accumulation of dandruff on the scalp, and it is nothing more or less than accumulated waste which is made possible on account of nature not furnishing enough oil for the roots of the hair.

Lydia's Hair Beautifier removes the cause and as a consequence the effect, which is dandruff, disappears. Madame Lydia manufactures her own oils and wishes to announce to her customers that her picture is on each bottle, that covers her preparations and if some other is used she will not be responsible for the bad results. An excellent working force has been engaged to assist Madame Lydia in the distribution of the famous "Lydia's Hair Beautifier" and "Lydia's Hair Conditioner" and "Lydia's Hair Dressing" and "Lydia's Hair Oil" and "Lydia's Hair Cream" and "Lydia's Hair Lotion" and "Lydia's Hair Shampoo" and "Lydia's Hair Tonic" and "Lydia's Hair Water" and "Lydia's Hair Butter" and "Lydia's Hair Paste" and Entered as second-class matter April 6, 1912 at the Post Office at Saint Louis, Missouri, under the act of March 3, 1979.

The word citizen has a high, historic meaning. Riding like a king in his chariot, it comes down to us from the Greeks, thro' the Romans, and across the middle ages, resplendent with honor and proud with dignity. In the ancient civilization, the citizen was a member of a haughty, exclusive class. Below him, and subject to him, stood all others in the state who were outside of this class.

The middle ages inherited the political forms and customs of Greece and Rome. The Italian republics were based on aristocracy and cemented with the blood of historic houses. The Republic of Holland was built upon great land-holders. The Swiss republics were little groups of cousins united by blood relationship, and around them towered the great monarchies of medieval Europe, with the throne for the sun and the nobility for the stellar system.

Now, the American Republic is founded, not on privilege, like the Greek and Roman States; not on lineage, like the republics of Italy in the middle Ages; not on land proprietorship, like the Republic of Holland; not on blood relationship, like Swiss cantons, but upon manhood. The founders, or "forefathers," said: "Just as a man is able to take care of himself physically, mentally, morally and financially, so is he able to take care of himself politically." They said: "We will build an everyday, working State on the basis of the average man."

And so an American citizen is thus defined in Article XIV, Section 1, of the Constitution: "All persons"—and certainly, all persons must include male and female, white and colored—"all persons born or naturalized in the United States, and subject to the jurisdiction thereof, are citizens of the United States, and of the States wherein they reside. No State shall make or enforce any law which shall abridge the privileges or immunities of citizens of the United States; nor shall any State deprive any person of life, liberty, or property without due process of law, nor deny to any person within its jurisdiction the equal protection of the laws."

Then again, in Article XV, Section 1, the Elective franchise is made the absolute right of the citizen. "The right of citizens of the United States to vote shall not be denied or abridged by the United States or any State on account of race, color, or previous condition of servitude."

Thus the American citizen stands—and the Afro-American should also stand—before the world, the peer of any Kaiser or King, Czar or Sultan. He is the heir of the liberty of his fathers; he is the defender of the liberty of his children—not Caesar was more sovereign than he.

The underlying principle of American citizenship is this, that no man or race, of whatever creed or color, shall be subservient to, or politically dependent upon, any other man or race, but that each shall be armed for self-defense. The weapon of this self-defense is the ballot—

"Defense, a weapon firmer set
And better than the bayonet;
A weapon that comes down as still
As snowflakes fall upon the sod;
Yet executes a freeman's will
As lightning does the will of God."

Since, then, the citizen is thus supreme in America, it follows that he is responsible. Louis XIV. of France used to say: "I am the State." What the Grand monarch said in his pride, the humblest of us may say in humility—"I am the State." For a State is composed of its citizenship, and we are a tenth part of that citizenship!

In England, the King has the place, but the House of Commons has the power. In the United States, whoever is president, the people are in power. Hence the people deserve credit when affairs go right, and merit blame when affairs go wrong. And do not forget that we are a tenth part of the people. In all that we suffer of wrong, of injustice, of discrimination, we are to blame.

The indifference and pre-occupation of the largest and best part of our citizenship is today the chief menace to our race. Men and women, otherwise good, are too busy worshipping at the shrine of mammon; chasing money, thirsting for pleasure, seeking for fine clothes—too busy doing that, to give thought and time to the duties of citizenship. Meantime, inch by inch, foot by foot, our liberty is slipping away from us. "Eternal vigilance, is the price of liberty;" and we have good authority to "watch as well as pray."

The curse of our race is materialism. We kindle only within the circle of material interests—the pursuits of appetite and passion. Outside that circle and on higher subjects, we are as cold as icebergs in Arctic waters. We worship the dirt.

Since we are infected with this tendency to grovel, we need to be reminded that the salvation of a race depends upon the moral earnestness of its people. History shows that nations and races are made by heroes—like the patriot fathers who pledged their "lives, their fortunes, and their sacred honor" on behalf of truth and progress; like Luther, who set his feet on the rock of principle and said: "Here I must stand—God help me! I can do no more," like Wendell Phillips, who said: "I found my country half slave and half free—I left it without a fetter."

Let us cheer our spirits and nerve our souls with these high ideals and brave examples. Then will liberty and equality become the law of the social order. Then we will no longer have to chant requiems, but will sing hallelujahs!

Y. M. C. A. NOTES

This week being observed as health week throughout the country, and in view of that fact a physician has been asked to address the men's meeting next Sunday. Dr. Phillips, a well-known physician of this city, will speak to the men on "The Worth of a Man."

About seventy new members have been brought into the Association, and the men are still working to bring the Association membership up to and beyond its former standard. The final report of the membership canvass will be taken March 28 at the men's meeting at Douglas Hall and the membership committee is expecting large returns.

The physical committee is completing its plans for the basketball championship, the preliminary games to which are now being played at the Summer High School gymnasium. The cups for the winners are now on exhibition at the store of Clark & Smith on Market Street.

On April 7 a membership banquet will be held and the financial campaign for current expenses will be launched. T. F. Leimann, Rev. of the St. Louis Y. M. C. A. and Mr. J. O. Ward, of the International Committee, will be the guests of honor. The social committee is hoping to make this a great affair.

Y. W. C. A. NOTES

The first of a series of neighborhood conferences was held last Thursday evening at the beautiful home of Dr. and Mrs. A. N. Craddock, on West Belle Place. The Association work was discussed by an interested group of people.

If one should visit our Association building on Saturday during club hours they would see how badly we are in need of larger quarters. Our girls crowd every inch of the building and we haven't room for the clubs to meet separately. We are delighted to help Sister Jonier with a splendid group of girls at the mission on Gratiot St.

Dr. Geo. E. Steven, of Central Church, gave a splendid talk at the supper hour Sunday. Special Vesper Services are being prepared for Easter Sunday. Regular Vespers Sunday afternoon at 4:45. The public is invited.

Wilson On

Negro Insurance

Pursuant to a popular demand from a large number of his policy holders, the Argus correspondent sought an additional interview with the subject of the sketch, Mr. Jno. R. Wilson to ascertain as near as possible the growth of Negro insurance business that is sold by Negro agents.

Mr. Wilson spoke very freely and favorably of other Negro insurance agents in St. Louis, Mo., but was very reluctant to refer to his personal achievements in the insurance world. Mr. Wilson finally consented for an interview, the substance of which is as follows:

He was appointed letter carrier at Houston, Tex., when 18 years of age and after serving in that capacity for six years 1 enlisted in the U. S. Army, being honorably discharged June 30, 1901 at Presidio, Cal. I returned to my native home, Houston, Texas, where I enjoyed the greetings of relatives and friends. I subsequently appointed clerk in the R. M. S. April, 1903, and served in that department until December 8, 1912, when I severed my connection with the United States Government to engage in the insurance business. I want to speak to the people through the Argus, in regard to Negro business enterprises, especially insurance. There is a growing disposition among the masses of the race to assist struggling and deserving Negro business enterprises, to the extent that the Negro business man meets competition. Nine years ago, when I began writing insurance as a "side line" while engaged in the government service, I discovered from my then success the possibilities of the insurance business, some of which I have realized.

Let me to ask the Negro voters of this great Commonwealth, What is wrong? The City Central Committee seems to be asleep in relation to calling meetings in the various wards where the Negroes are largely located. Same has not got the proper coloring. See what the independent voters give you at the primaries? Catch this, Who broke my state? Ex. Whamp.

EDWARD SCHOLL, 2nd WARD

He is president of the Bremen Theater Company and formerly Scholl Bros. Hide & Tallow Company. He is well fitted for the office that he is seeking, bears a good reputation with the community at large.

DR. RICHTER 12TH WARD

He is a public spirited man, broad in his views and representative in his citizenship. The Negroes political hopes are dependent upon the selection of men who are large enough to be more prejudiced and discrimination. Dr. Richter is such a man and as such deserves your support.

Wilbur C. Schwartz, nominee for the Board of Aldermen of the 20th Ward. Born in Edwardsville, Ill., 27 years of age, graduate of Washington University and also Law Department. Chancellor Commander Premier Lodge, K. of P. and affiliated with A. F. and A. M. He is liberal in his views; does not stand for class legislation. It will be wise to support a man like Mr. Schwartz as one of the members of the Board. Being a young man he will be ready at all times to take advantage of any matter that may confront him or the betterment of the people. ST. LOUIS GIANTS' NEW GRAND STAND
Showing the Forty-one Boxes. extending from First Base
all away around to the third base line

NEW GIANTS PARK NEARLY FINISHED

FIRST SPRING PRACTICE, APRIL 1

Manager Chas. Mills and Capt. Dick Wallace have issued a call to the youngsters and vets for their first workout April 1. All young men who have made application, for try-out should call on Mgr. Mills at once. As there are so many recruits, Mills is going to split them in two clubs. By doing this each man will be given a fair chance to bid for a position on the St. Louis Club.

Chasley was all smiles when Capt.

The fans will see one of the most beautiful ball parks in the country. Owner Conrad Kuebler has left nothing undone that will insure comfort to the patrons. The immense grandstand, completely covered, extends from the first base around to the third base line. Forty-one roomy boxes, of 4 seats each line the entire front. The bleachers extend from the third base well out into the field. The club house is opposite the first base. The big grass-covered field is as level as a table. The entrances have concrete walks and arranged to handle big crowds quickly. The park will be open all day Sunday and it would be a treat for any one to make a trip out Broadway and inspect it. Capt. Wallace refused to give out a list of players until the reporter got Mills' O. K. The following are some of the men lined up: The force that will handle the park consists of the following men: Ticket-sellers, Robt. Mims and Clinie E. Smith; box seats, and Jacob Bailey represent about one-half of the boys. J. J. Mattjoy, formerly of the Keystones, of St. Paul, will try for R. L. Jones' position as umpire. With this lively bunch to select from, a first class park, and two hustlers like Kuebler and Mills at the helm, there is no reason why St. Louis should not enjoy the biggest season in its history of colored baseball. The opening game Sunday, April 18, Robert L. Jones, the former umpire will officiate in one of the innings as a farewell to his baseball activity. Although the boxes have not been placed on sale, nearly all have been spoken for. At The Keystone Cafe, on Monday night, April 19, Mr. Jones will give a farewell reception to the buyers and his many baseball friends. This will be a most brilliant affair.

BASEBALL TEAM IS READY

The Mohawks, one of the best semi-professional teams in the city, will be lined up for the season with the following well-known talent in their places for the season of 1915: Chatham, s. s.; Edwards, 2d base; Hampton, 3d base; Jordan, 1st base; Gans, C. Price and Kimble, pitchers; Smith, Harris and Jasmon, fielders; Hawkins, utility.

LOVE, COURTSHIP AND MARRIAGE.
He affairs of the heart or emotions of love interest you, he gives the exact and truthful revelations of all love affairs, settles lovers' quarrels, enables you to win the esteem and affection of anyone you desire, causes your "happy marriage" to be a success. He tells if the one you love is true; also date of marriage; restores affection, peace and harmony to "lovers" and "discontented families," gives you the full secret of how to seduce, fascinate and charm the one you love; also those you meet, and how to make a person at a distance think of you.
